

Securitas Canada Announces Its New President

| 22 June 2015

On June 22, 2015, Santiago Galaz, CEO, appointed Mr. Perry Clarke to the role of President, Securitas Canada Ltd. After serving in the Royal Canadian Regiment in the Canadian Armed Forces, Mr. Clarke entered the private security field as a security guard and investigator. Since joining Securitas in 1990, Mr. Clarke has worked in progressively challenging positions including Branch Manager, District Manager and most recently, Area Vice President for Western Canada. Mr. Clarke oversees all guarding operations for Canada.